This is who we are!

We campaign on some of today's most pressing environmental and social issues, by engaging the public directly through a wide range of diverse projects and activities. The host organization creates and participates in vibrant campaigns, raises awareness on a number of pertinent national and international issues, and mobilises people to participate in decision making processes.

In addition, our organisation strives to provide creative solutions that are based on sound knowledge and information, especially through the promotion of alternatives to certain environmental behaviours. And in keeping to our activist roots, the host organization continuously lobbies, mobilises, and influences the policy community towards a more just and sustainable society.

About the activity

You will be responsible for achieving the goals set for the duration of ideally up to 1 year as part of our team, together with other staff members and volunteers. Due to the nature of our office environment, being dynamic and having a diverse set of skills is essential. Duties will include:

- Upkeep of the garden
- Planning the community garden project
- Helping in the organisation of educational activities

- Coordinating with a group of volunteers to implement the project
- Technical support to create the crop garden
- Facilitation in the production of toolkits
- Creating space for community integration and involvement

Volunteer Profile

- Age: 18–30 years old
- Basic knowledge of English to communicate and engage in project tasks
- Strong interest in environment and sustainability topics
- Ability to work in collaborative decision-making processes and have excellent people and communication skills.

Desirable Qualities & Skills:

- Knowledge of local flora and fauna
- Experienced in event organisation and hosting educational activities
- Be organised and meticulous with a high degree of commitment
- Be flexible and can work on own initiative
- Ability to work in collaborative decision-making processes and have excellent people and communication skills
- Have experience working in the environmental field and especially have an understanding of agriculture both from a rural or a policy perspective with an interest and knowledge in food sovereignty

Qualifications:

The candidate should have at least a degree level of education. Knowledge of EU affairs and experience with EU projects will be considered an asset.

Seminars

As a volunteer within the ESC programme, 2 seminars are offered by the Malta National Agency, in which the volunteer will meet other volunteers involved in other organizations activities and from all over Malta.

Travel

Travel costs of the volunteer from to Malta and back will be reimbursed to a maximum in accordance with the European Commission distance calculator and European Solidarity Corps Program Guide.

Accommodation, food and transport arrangements

Accommodation will be provided by the host organization.

Pocket money

The hosting organization will give the monthly allowance to the volunteer.

Food and Transport

The hosting organization will give the monthly allowance to the volunteer.
