This is who we are!

The host organization is a Strasbourg-based organisation founded in 1998 with the aim of promoting intercultural dialogue and local youth development through the promotion and implementation of intellectual learning and inclusion. The organisation targets young people with fewer opportunities and/or from migrant backgrounds, from priority urban neighbourhoods, who are failing at school, have few qualifications or are unemployed. The host organization has developed solid partnerships enabling it to carry out numerous transnational youth projects. For example, it hosts and sends volunteers as part of the ESC programme. In addition to these various youth projects on a European or international scale, the host organization has also developed numerous local projects to help young people find employment and raise their awareness of various issues.

About the activity

During your volunteering, you will be asked to carry out various activities. Here is a selection of the activities you will be able to carry out in July-August:

- Running workshops for children and young people living in Strasbourg's working-class neighborhoods, enabling these young people, who are often on the streets or don't have the opportunity to go on vacation, to take part in socio-educational, artistic, sporting, recreational, musical, cultural or manual activities. These activities will be set up and proposed by volunteers, according to their skills, knowledge and interests in collaboration with our local partners.
- Creation of multimedia, digital and communication tools (podcasts, data sheets, e-booklets, videos, reports, flyers...) and translation of content

- Facilitation of and participation in multimedia, digital and citizenship education workshops with young residents of working-class neighborhoods in Strasbourg;
- Activities linked to local events, enabling young people to exercise their citizenship as web-trotters (street interviews, reporting, success stories, etc.)
- Participation in gardening and cleaning activities in the association's shared garden on weekdays and weekends (if the activity is on weekends, it will be recuperated)
- Involvement in the association's day-to-day activities (cleaning, tidying up, having a stand, helping to organize and taking part in events that may take place in the evenings or during weekends, etc.)
- Participate in exchanges and testimonials on the results of learning during volunteering (stands, neighborhood events, social networks...) and meetings with local players;
- Participation in the association's activities and events (parties, solidarity events, etc.) and valorisation of volunteering experience.

In addition to the activities listed above, volunteers will carry out activities specifically dedicated to sharing their volunteering experience:

- Draw up an online learning log/diary charting the activities carried out and related reflections, as well as the skills developed. At the end of each day, time will be set aside to reflect on the day's activities, feelings, skills mobilized, etc. Participation in team meetings, follow-up meetings with the tutor, time for self-evaluation/reflection: during these times, young volunteers will have the opportunity to reflect on their learning and the skills they have learned and improved during the ESC. This reflection will be facilitated by the completion of a logbook and will enable participants to draw up a Youthpass certificate which they can then use in their job search;
- Creation and daily updating of a page on social networks enabling volunteers to raise awareness among a wider public of the inclusion of young people from marginalized neighborhoods, to highlight their volunteering experience, and to exchange and share ideas and best practices. The link to this page will be shared and promoted on the ESC organizations' websites and social networks;
- Writing articles and success stories about the volunteering experience, writing a report on volunteering and creating a film about volunteering;
- Share the results of online volunteering activities with your friends and network at local, regional and national level.
