This is who we are!

The organization is working to provide support to people who face social difficulties, especially towards access to housing.

The organization is running different shelters, the activities of the volunteer will take place in two specific shelters, one hosting only women, and the other one hosting families and young people with migration background. The organization aims at giving access to different kind of activities to the residents, in order to foster the inclusion and social link.

About the activity

Mission A

In the house (hosting women only) located in Noailles in the city center of Marseille, your mission is to work together with the team to break the isolation of the women hosted by the organization, and create a group dynamic.

This is done through collective activities, such as : workshops based on the interest of the volunteers and the women, excursions (cinema, theatre, trip abroad..), collective events in the house...

Mission B

The mission takes place in a MECS (social center hosting people under 18) where are hosted young people with migration background. The MECS is located in the neighborhood "Belle de Mai", but the volunteer will live in the city center.

The mission here too is to support the collective life of the center and organise activities with the young people hosted such as : workshops based on the interest of the volunteers and the women, excursions (cinema, theatre..), collective events in the house...

The volunteers are supported by the whole team: they will give you ideas, help you widen your network, support you in your missions, especially with the residents.
