This is who we are!

The host organization is a non-governmental, non-profit organisation based in the picturesque village of Mindya, Bulgaria. Founded by a dedicated team of local activists, eco-enthusiasts, and international expats, our mission is to revitalise rural areas, promote sustainable living, and foster cross-cultural youth cooperation. We act as a bridge between traditional Bulgarian rural heritage and modern ecological practices.

About the activity

This project encourages young people to experience a more sustainable way of living, closer to nature and away from the fast-paced, digital lifestyle. By spending time in a rural environment, volunteers are invited to think “green”, reduce their reliance on electronic devices, and rediscover the value of simple, conscious living. Living together in a small village, sharing daily routines and responsibilities, participants step out of their comfort zones and immerse themselves in a completely different way of life. Through hands-on activities, they will create and build with their own hands, developing basic practical skills, creativity, and a sense of independence that is often missing in everyday life. At the same time, the project aims to temporarily change the environment of young people, offering them the opportunity to disconnect from their usual surroundings and reconnect with nature, people, and themselves. By living and working together as a group, they gain new perspectives, build meaningful connections, and experience personal growth within a short-term European Solidarity Corps project.

Project Plans

During the project, volunteers will take part in a mix of activities combining work, free time, and cultural experiences. The program includes hands-on terrain work, time to relax and explore, as well as opportunities to travel within the country. Participants will also contribute to organizing a local community event and support the community in Mindya whenever help is needed. The schedule is designed to create a balance between meaningful work, shared experiences, and personal time.

In addition to the main activities, the project offers a rich social and cultural experience. Volunteers will have the opportunity to organize their own free-time activities such as movie nights, table tennis tournaments, karaoke evenings, and other group initiatives.

These moments are an important part of the experience, helping participants relax, bond as a group, and create unforgettable memories together.

Volunteer Profile

The project is open to young people aged between 18 and 30 who are motivated to do the project. Volunteers should be open-minded, flexible and willing to work as part of an international team. A minimum intermediate level of English is required, as English will be the working language of the group and will be used for coordination and teamwork.

Travel costs of the volunteer from to Bulgaria and back will be reimbursed to a maximum in accordance with the European Commission distance calculator and European Solidarity Corps Program Guide.
