This is who we are!

Social Welfare Home in Gdynia is a residential care home for elderly people who need daily support. Some residents may have difficulties with moving around, taking care of their health, or managing everyday tasks, so they are supported by professional staff.

The home is located in a cosy and green area, close to a forest, and has its own garden. It is home to 79 residents who form a small community. For them, it is important not only to receive care, but also to have social contact, stay active, and feel included.

The centre offers different activities that help residents maintain their physical and mental wellbeing. These include rehabilitation, therapeutic activities, Senior Club meetings, and various social and cultural events.

About the Activity

As a volunteer, you will mainly support occupational therapy activities. This type of therapy helps residents stay active, develop their interests, and enjoy their time.

You may take part in activities such as:

- arts and crafts (e.g. drawing, painting, sewing),
- music therapy and audio-visual activities,
- games and recreational activities,
- educational and themed sessions,
- reading activities (bibliotherapy),
- social interaction and communication activities.

You can also help organise holidays and special events.

Additionally, you may:

- support residents during simple rehabilitation exercises (under staff supervision),
- help in the garden by taking care of flowers, trees, and shrubs.

Your role is to support the professional staff – you are not replacing them, but helping to create a friendly, active, and warm atmosphere for the residents.
